ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

The Indiana Supreme Court Disciplinary Commission, pursuant to Indiana

Admission and Discipline Rule 23(10)(f), petitions this Court to direct the respondent, Ginamarie A. Gaudio-Graves, to show cause why she should not be immediately suspended from the practice of law in this state due to her failure to respond to the Commission's demands for a written response to pending allegations of misconduct filed against her and sent to her official address of record with the Clerk of this Court.

The Court finds that the Commission's petition should be granted. The respondent should be ordered to show cause to this Court why she should not be immediately suspended from the practice of law in this state due to her failure to submit to the Commission a written response to pending allegations of professional misconduct and sent to her official address of record with the Clerk of this Court.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that, pursuant to Admis.Disc.R. 23(10)(f), the respondent, Ginamarie A. Gaudio-Graves, is hereby directed to show cause in writing, within 10 days of service of this order, why she should not be immediately suspended from the practice of law in this state due to her failure to submit to the Disciplinary

Commission a written response to pending allegations of misconduct requiring a written response and sent to the respondent's official address of record with the Clerk of this Court.

The Clerk of this Court is ordered to serve a certified copy of this order upon the respondent by delivering a copy to her personally, or by sending to her a certified copy of it by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested. The Clerk of this Court is further directed to provide notice of this Order to the Indiana Supreme Court Disciplinary Commission and its attorney of record.
